

- Discovery shall be conducted according to the guidelines set forth in Local Rule 26.1 and according to this Case Management Plan. Stipulations or agreements by counsel to extend deadlines will not be grounds for extending limitations set in the CMC.

Consistent with the Court's oral order, paper discovery was permitted to commence immediately following the CMC

The Court ordered that the parties take no more than 5 depositions per side without leave of Court.

Expert Discovery:

On or before TBD, Plaintiff shall identify her retained expert witness(es) and provide opposing counsel with a written expert report(s). On or before TBD, Defendants shall identify its retained expert witness(es) and provide opposing counsel with a written expert report(s).

The discovery depositions of the parties' expert witnesses shall be completed on or before TBD. If a party chooses not to use its own expert witness, it will be permitted to take the discovery deposition of its opponent's expert witness only after submitting a written statement advising the Court and opposing counsel to that effect.

A party may not call an expert witness to testify unless a written report prepared and signed by the witness has been procured and provided to opposing counsel. The report shall contain a complete statement of all opinions of the expert as to each issue on which he/she will testify and the basis and reasons therefor; the data or other information considered by the witness in forming the opinions; any exhibits to be used as a summary of or support for the opinions; the qualifications of the witness, including a list of all publications authored by the witness within the preceding ten years; the compensation to be paid for the study and testimony; and a listing of any other cases in which the witness has testified as an expert at trial or by deposition within the preceding four years. An expert will not be permitted to testify or provide opinions on issues not raised in his/her report.

Discovery Materials: No discovery materials shall be filed without leave of Court, except as necessary to support dispositive motions. If a party intends to rely on deposition testimony in support of its position on a motion, the Court prefers the filing of the entire deposition rather than excerpts, unless the party truly believes that excerpts are sufficient, and with the proviso that any other party who believes the excerpts offered are not sufficient is free to file the entire deposition. In any event, discovery material submitted in support of any party's position shall be filed at the same time as that party's memorandum setting forth its position.

Discovery disputes: Counsel should comply with Local Rule 37.1 before filing discovery motions. Any dispute not presented to the Court at least 14 days prior to the close of discovery will not entertained by the Court.

Witnesses: No later than the closing date of discovery, each party shall provide all opposing counsel with a list of witnesses who are expected to be called at trial. Each attorney shall have a continuing obligation to supplement this list immediately upon learning of any additional witnesses. No witness will be permitted to testify unless his or her name is provided to opposing counsel at least ninety (90) days before trial or the closing date of discovery, whichever is later.

6. Dispositive motions deadline: 9/16/2024.

Briefing schedule: Counsel are directed to follow the briefing schedule set forth at Local Rule 7.1 (d) and (e) for dispositive motions. That is, each party shall serve and file a memorandum in opposition to a dispositive motion within thirty (30) days after service of the motion. The moving party may serve and file a reply memorandum in support of its motion within fourteen (14) days after service of the memorandum in opposition. Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(d), three (3) days shall be added to the prescribed period if service is by mail. No surreplies will be permitted absent advance leave of Court.

Page Limitations: The Court will strictly enforce provisions regarding length of memoranda filed in support of motions. See Local Rule 7.1(f). Motions for relief from the length restrictions must show good cause for such relief and must be made sufficiently in advance to permit the Court to rule and the Clerk's Office to issue the ruling by regular mail. Motions for relief from length restrictions which are filed contemporaneously with the memorandum exceeding the page limits will be denied. In no event shall the request to exceed page limitations extend the time for filing of the underlying memorandum.

Courtesy copies: Chambers will not accept courtesy copies of pleadings or memoranda unless expressly requested by the Court. Exception: Any pleading or memoranda not filed electronically and due within two (2) business days of a conference/hearing/trial shall be faxed to the Court as well as opposing counsel on the same day it is filed. The Court's fax number is 330-252-6077.

7. Amendment of the pleadings deadline: Any amendment shall require leave of Court.

8. Status Reports: Counsel shall submit status reports to the Court every thirty (30) days during the pendency of this matter. Status reports are to briefly state the following: (1) discovery that has occurred during the reporting period; (2) settlement discussions that have occurred during the reporting period; (3) motions that have been filed or remained pending during the reporting period; and (4) any developments that might give rise to a request to deviate from the schedule outlined in this case management plan. These are to be procedural reports; they are not to contain substantive discussions of the merits of any claims or defenses asserted. Failure to file status reports will automatically deprive a party of the right to seek extensions of time to perform any acts required under this order or under any applicable federal or local rule procedure. Repeated failures to file status reports could result in additional sanctions, including dismissal of claims or defenses under Rule 41(b). If any party wishes to disclose, in a status report, sensitive procedural matters (e.g., a request for a settlement conference, or personal reasons why extensions of time are required), that party may submit their status report ex parte.

9. A Status Conference is hereby scheduled for September 3, 2024 at 1:00 p.m. Counsel and parties are required to attend.

10. Correspondence with the Court: Parties and counsel are advised that non-motion or pleading correspondence other than referred to in this order is DISCOURAGED. Telephonic requests, notices, or inquiries are NOT appropriate.

11. Interim Requests for Status Conference: Parties wishing a conference before the Court on any issues other than discovery disputes (which are covered under paragraph 5 of this Plan) must submit a letter to the Court:

- (a) certifying that counsel have made a good faith effort to resolve those issues, and
- (b) outlining the issue(s) requiring the Court's attention.

12. Conduct of counsel: Pursuant to the Statement on Professionalism issued by the Supreme Court of Ohio on February 3, 1997, counsel are directed to be courteous and civil in all oral and written communications with each other and the Court. Pleadings which do not conform to this standard will be rejected.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
